St. Louis, 6; Chicago, 2.

ST. LOUIS, October 6.—It devolved on St. Louis, the fall leaders in the league greatest race, to drive the final spike in Chicago's aspirations for the 1905 pennant, and to give Philadelphia a clear title to the American League championship.

Almost as remarkable as the burst of speed displayed by Chicago on its last Eastern trip was the reversal of form of the locals, when they broke Dr. White, Manager Jones' premier pitcher, from the box in the third inning, and practically annihilated the game, which they finally won.

INSTANTLY BLIND.

Awful Misfortune to a Railway Clerk.

SPENCER, N. C., October 6.—Jas. A.
Reeves, a clerk in the Southern Railway offices here went suddenly blind to-day in Charlotte where he had gone for medical attention. He left here yesterday and expected to take treatment for his eyes but went stone blind before treatment could be obtained. It is also believed that a blood vessel has been ruptured, causing blindness, together with mental aberration.
His condition is said to be serious, his mind being blank. His misfortune came without a moment's warning.

Cool Weather Helps Market.

The commission merchants hope that the cold wave will considerably increase the activity of the produce market.
Things have assumed already a more hopeful condition, and there is all probability that the present activity will continue. Chickens are active. Turkeys are wanted as also are good ducks. There is a good demand for these fowl, and shippers should send them in.

KEEP HIM SAFE.

Jim Watson to Remain in Lynchburg Jail.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., Oct. 6.—The American county authorities have decided to permit Jim Watson, the negro who has been arrested on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Long, at Amherst Courthouse last Sunday, to remain in the Lynchburg jail for the present. The authorities fear violence from the people living near Amherst should the negro be taken back to the county jail there. Mrs. Brown continues to improve from the wound in her head by which she was struck unconscious by her assailant before she was assaulted.

Brief Items From Everywhere.

Fight on Blind Baggage.

DOVER, DEL., October 6.—In a deperate fight aboard a rapidly moving "blind baggage" train on the Delaware Railroad last night, Detective Nathan Hutchins was stabbed, and his prisoner leaped off the train and was killed.
Hutchins, who is a railway sleuth, saw four men stealing goods from a train passing through Clayton. Before he could seize them, all escaped except one. When Hutchins attempted to capture him, the man drew a knife, turned on Hutchins, and they grappled in a death struggle.
Hutchins stopped a blow aimed at his heart, but the knife sank into his hand, saving his life.
A minute later the man disappeared.

Cut His Tongue Out.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., October 6.—Claiming her divorced husband, Jennie Green, had stolen her, Mrs. Martha Fannon made an almost successful attempt to cut out his tongue with a butcher knife to-day. When Green was taken to the police station his tongue was hanging by a mere thread. The doctors sewed it together as best they could and packed Green's mouth with cotton to stop the bleeding.

It will not be known for several days whether the pieces will knit or not. Green could not talk, but with writing materials he said the cutting was done by Mrs.
Fannon and her son-in-law, Charles Thomas. Green said Thomas held him while Mrs. Fannon pulled out his tongue and slashed it. When arrested, Thomas and Mrs. Fannon admitted doing the cutting, but claimed it was done in course of a general fight with knives which followed Mrs. Fannon's visit to her former husband to uphold him for slandering her.

Death Ends Masquerade.

MILWAUKEE, October 6.—Miss Al-mae Blondel, the lion tamer, fatally mangled by the monstrous lion, Roosavelt, of the Robinson Circus, three millions, last night in "Johnnie" Kennedy, a Milwaukee boy. The daring trainer was only saved from immediate death by the bullets of the troop of cavalry traveling with the circus.
It was known for granted that the trainer was a woman and the real identity was not discovered until a friend made it known. "Johnnie," who took the name of Krank Kennedy when he went upon the stage, is about 23 years old, said his stepmother. He is blond and very light-skinned, and was given in his manner from his earliest youth.

Advertise Wedding.

FOND DU LAC, WIS., October 6.— Fond du Lac society was startled to-day by a large and easily-read type displayed to the extent which is reasonably permitted by a space on a newspaper, to a depth of several inches, are the cause. The type declared that Mr. and Mrs. John T.
Boyle announced the marriage of their daughter, Mary Agnes, to George A.
Dana, at St. Ignace, Chicago, October 1st. The advertisement, which was printed this morning, continued: "At home after November 1st. No cards." Not long ago a marriage license was issued to Mary Agnes Boyle and George A. Dana, of Chicago, by the city clerk.
The license was returned to Chicago. Reporters then received a denial straight from Mr. Boyle that there would be a wedding in the case.

Pitted the Fanatic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Charles Baker, who for a week past has been the dead body of his five-month-old daughter, in the hope that she might be restored to life, was the principal witness yesterday at the inquest held by Coroner Dugan. He is the head of a strange sect, known as the "Assembly of Christians," the tenets of which are in many ways remarkable.
The cause of the child's death, according to Dr. Wadsworth, who made the autopsy, was pneumonia, and a verdict was rendered to that effect. Baker, who is a steam-fitter by trade, was called to explain why he had not obtained medical aid for the child, who was named Florence E. He told his story, which that if his individual wishes were consulted he would favor the re-enactment of the present district lines without the dotted of an "I" or the crossing of a "Y".

What his present position on the matter is no one here can say, but he is known to say that he will follow his policy of two years ago, leaving it entirely to the decision of the Legislature, without suggestion from him.

Mr. Andrew Tyree, one of the old-time printers of Richmond, and his wife, arriving friends in Washington this morning, predicted that the union printers of Richmond will win the strike they are waging against the employing printers of that city.

Wed Father's Employee.

BOSTON, October 6.—More than usual surprise was expressed by society in this city to-day when it became known that Miss Della D. Barrus, of Brookline, daughter of a multi-millionaire, and Wesley C. Brown, a mechanical engineer in the employ of the young woman's father, were married on September 21st.
Because of the young woman's wealth and family she has been a leading figure in social circles. It is the fact that no formal announcement was made of the marriage caused much wonder.
Although the bride is only 27 years old, this is her second matrimonial venture.
She had attended a fashionable boarding school on the Hudson, near New York and after a romantic courtship, suddenly announced her marriage. This was followed by a divorce on March 14, 1904.

Automobile Too Much.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., October 6.— Seriously ill of too much, too rapid and too reckless automobilism, is the condition of J. B. John, a well known young business man of Oakland.
Mr. John became ill on Thursday and was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where he died on Saturday. He was a member of the Automobile Club of California, and was a devotee of the motor car. He was found in the driver's seat of his automobile, and it is believed that he died of a heart attack while driving.

A Counterfeit Out.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 6.—Chief Wilkie, of the secret service, has announced the discovery of a new counterfeit ten dollar United States "buffalo" note. It is of the series of 1901 check letter B. Lyons Registrar, Roberts Treasurer.
The note is said to be a fairly deceptive photo-mechanical reproduction of the original, and is made of paper, between which are placed thin layers of blue and green ink. It is fully three-eighths of an inch longer than the genuine. The numbering is denominated "X" and seal are darker than the genuine, and the filio work is indistinct and broken in many places. The back of the note is printed in a very dark green.

This note made its appearance in New York and was passed on a subway ticket agent at Broadway and Forty-second Street.

Fell With Dynamite.

WILKESBORO, PA., October 6.—Ten miners employed at the No. 9 shaft of the Lehigh and Wilkesboro Coal Company, at Sugar Notch, to-day had a miraculous escape from death when the cage in which they were, together with twenty-five pounds of dynamite, fell down the shaft.
They were being lowered when the engineer lost control and the carriage dropped. Fortunately, it was but fifteen feet from the bottom at the time, and although the box containing the dynamite was broken and the sticks were scattered, it did not explode. All the men were injured, but none seriously.

Straw Hat Lightning Rod.

WYANESBORO, PA., October 6.—During last night's storm a lot of lightning struck at the home of Keller Greager, at Ringgold, just across the Maryland line.
Descending into a room in which Greager was sleeping, it hit his straw hat, ran around the rim and down the side of his neck to the body, tearing the shirt collar; then to his right leg and great toe, which it split, and tore off half his shoe. The hat and the stick were scattered, and the stick exploded. Greager was found unconscious. When he recovered he did not know the nature of the accident. Neither his wife nor children were near him when he was struck.

Macon Meet at West End

Park This Afternoon.

Randolph-Macon meets Richmond College on the gridiron at Broad Street Park to-day. This, the first game of the season, promises to be one of unusual interest, because of the traditional rivalry between the two institutions, but because of the relative strength of the two teams.
Coach Murray Russell, of Georgetown, has been working the warriors of the college and back has since the opening of college. He has out one of the largest football squads that have ever appeared at Randolph-Macon, and he is rapidly transforming the raw material into a heavy, quick, progressive team.
On the other hand, Coach Dunlop, of Bowdoin, has lost no time in putting out a heavy, snappy team for Richmond College, and is looking forward to a complete victory for the Spiders this afternoon. Since the traditional rivalry between the two institutions, but because of the relative strength
of the two teams.
